National Association of Wetland Managers (NAWM)

ABOUT

- Established as a 501(c)(3) organization in 1983 by Jon A. Kusler, PhD, Esq. and Scott Hausmann as The Association of State Wetland Managers (ASWM).
- Name changed to National Association of Wetland Managers (NAWM) in 2022.
- Membership is open to all.

MISSION

The mission of the National Association of Wetland Managers (NAWM) is to build capacity for state and tribal members and foster collaboration among the wetland community of practice by encouraging the application of sound science to wetland management and policy, promoting the protection and restoration of wetlands and related aquatic resources, and providing training and education for members and the general public.

VISION

As a result of NAWM's work, the wetland community has access to and effectively uses sound science, policy, and private/public partnerships to preserve, protect, and restore the nation's precious and limited wetlands and related aquatic resources.
